

The Gold Reading Challenge

Your Mission, Should You Care To Accept It.....

Read a fiction book that is at least 300 pages long and write a blurb (30-50 words) for the back cover of this book

Your Mission, Should You Care To Accept It.....

Join your local public library (if you haven't already) and borrow either an eBook or an audiobook

The ebook you selected or the audiobook you listened to is:

Author(s) _____

Title _____

Show your public library borrowing card to Miss Ryan in the Library

Your Mission, Should You Care To Accept It.....

Read a book on a topic or subject of particular interest to you. I can be either fiction or non-fiction but must be over 300 pages long if a fiction book and over 100 pages if a non-fiction book.

The book you selected is:

Author(s) _____

Title _____

Your Mission, Should You Care To Accept It.....

Complete a project

Carry out research on an author or topic which interests you

Present it as an A3 poster

It must be handwritten in your own words. Copy & paste is not allowed.

List your sources of information in a Bibliography – Miss Ryan will help you

The research project should include the following elements

Your Mission, Should You Care To Accept It.....

Author project requirements

Name of the author

Date and place of birth

His/Her picture

List of books s/he has written (at least 3)

Author Project Requirements - Continued

Five interesting facts you have learned about the author or five interesting facts you have learned about the topic. Full sentences are required.

What themes are explored in his/her writing (if a fiction author is chosen).

What do you like about her/his writing style. Give 3 examples from her/his work

Your Mission, Should You Care To Accept It.....

You do not have to have completed the Bronze and Silver challenges to start the Gold Challenge

There is no time limit on completing this challenge other than it must be started and finished in 2nd Year

Interested? Of Course You Are!! Speak to Miss Ryan