Three Life Rules

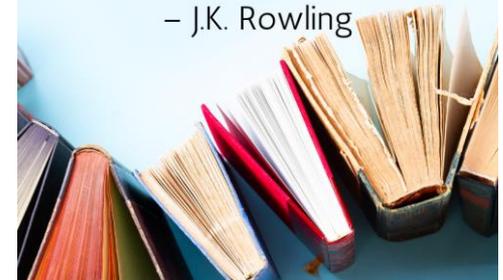

1. If you don't go after what you want, you'll never have it.
 2. If you don't ask, the answer will always be no.
 3. If you don't step forward, you will always be in the same place.

Aesop (Aesop's Fables)
An ancient Greek storyteller
born in Turkey around 600 BC Aesop's stories he invented over two thousand years ago have been popular ever since

I like his stories of people, animals, birds and trees
They all have a moral at the end of the story.

By Freya Jeacle

His stories are retold in one of my favourite story books called The Fables of Aesop. He inspires my storytelling and teaches me about kindness, honesty and friendship. My favourite story in my Usborne book is called Belling the cat.
The moral is "some things are easier said than done".

PABLO PICASSO

Who?

The person who inspired me to make Pablo Picasso

Pablo was a painter but not only that, he was also a sculptor, ceramicist, stage designer, poet and playwright.

He was born on the 25th of October 1881 and died at 91 years old on the 8th of April 1973.

He was born in Spain in the city of Malaga but he spent most of his life in France.

Why?

Pablo Picasso inspires me because he had great imagination and he made extraordinary paintings.

He was one of the most influential artists of the 20th century.

I really admire his paintings because they are full of beautiful colours and I like the way he uses shapes to make images.

What?

What I find interesting about Picasso is that he experimented with many different styles in his paintings and many kinds of art like painting, sculpture, pottery, and poetry.

Sometimes he expressed his feelings by making paintings.

Some Interesting Things about his life.

- When Picasso found his first job he started painting all his paintings in shades of blue and blue-green because he was very sad. Two paintings are known as Picasso's 'Blue Period'.

- Pablo is regarded as the master of Cubism and of the most significant art movement. It is called Cubism because the things represented in the art work look like they are made out of cubes.

- Pablo had a work record for the most pieces of art created by one person. Over 25 years he produced over 1,300 paintings or drawings, 10,000 prints or engravings, 30,000 book illustrations and 500 sculptures combined. This brings the grand total to over 145,000 pieces of work!

FUN FACTS!

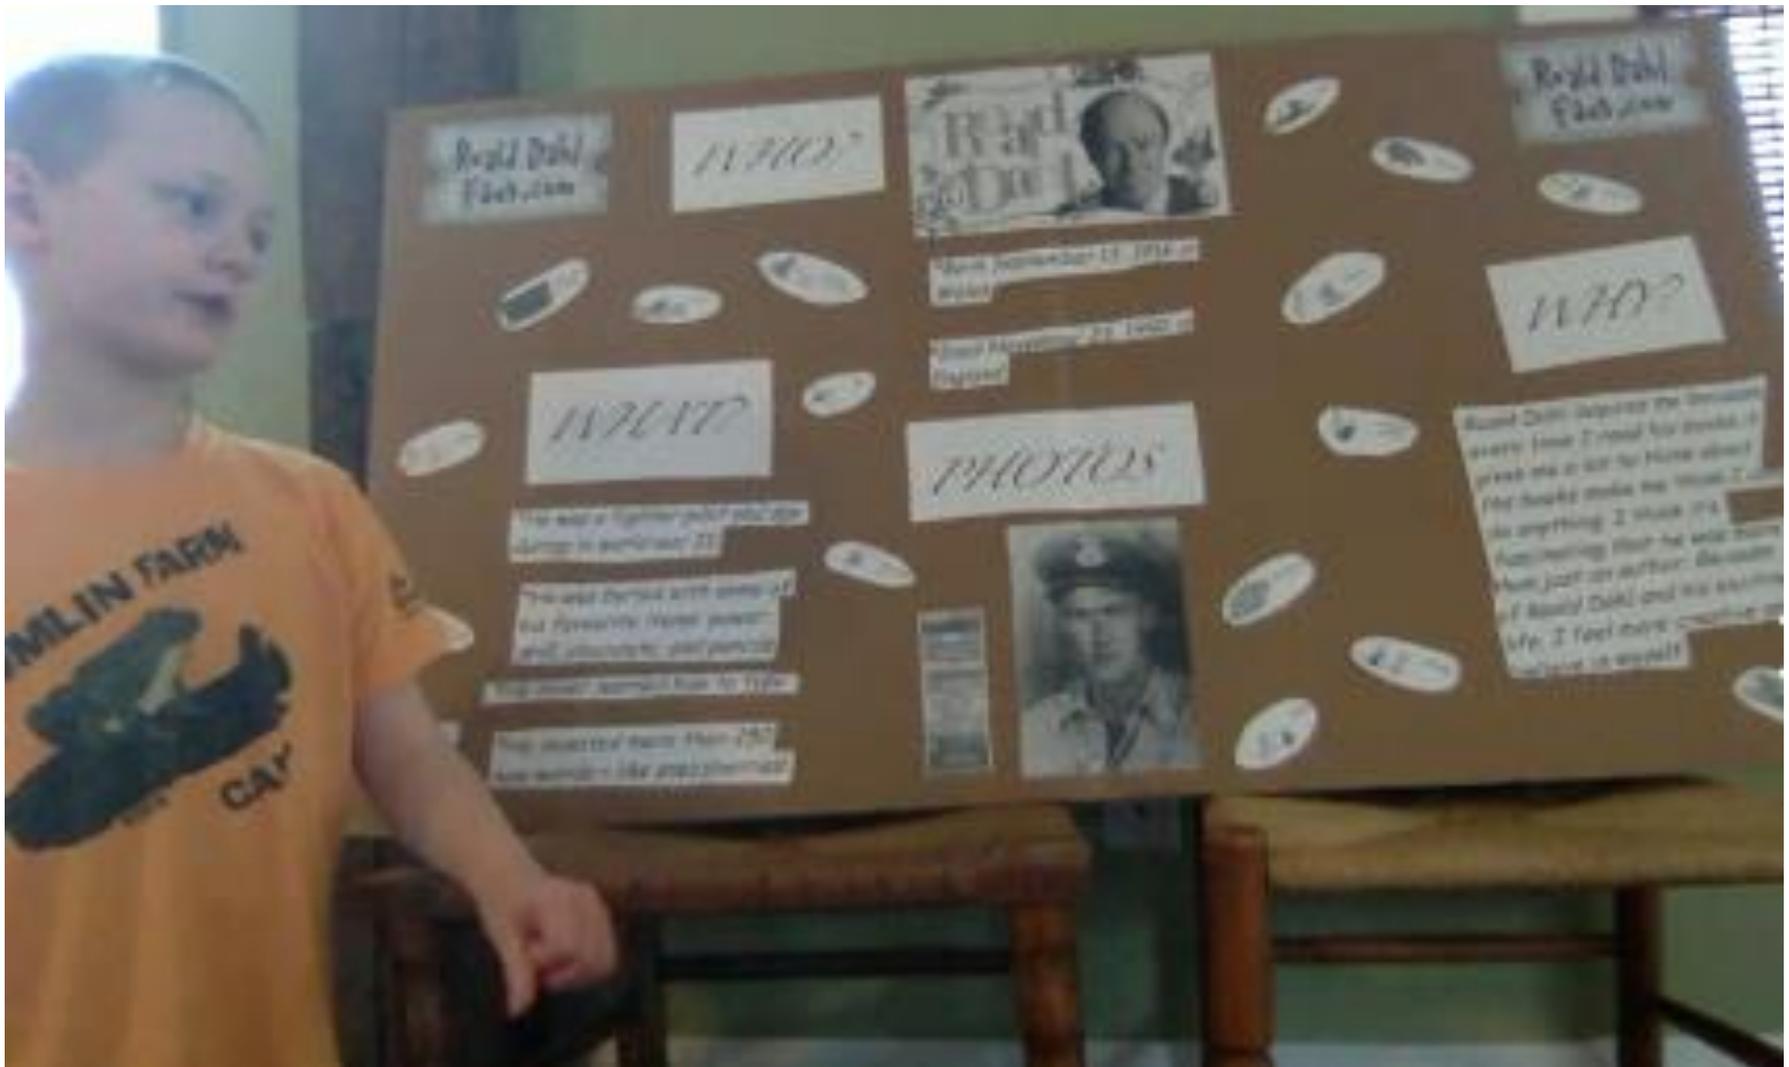

- Picasso's full name was 28 words in all! His full name is Pablo Diego José Francisco de Paula Juan Nepomuceno María de los Remedios Cipriano de la Santísima Trinidad Mártir Ponce de León Picasso!!

- Picasso loved pets. During his lifetime he owned a mouse, a turtle, a monkey and a few cats and dogs.

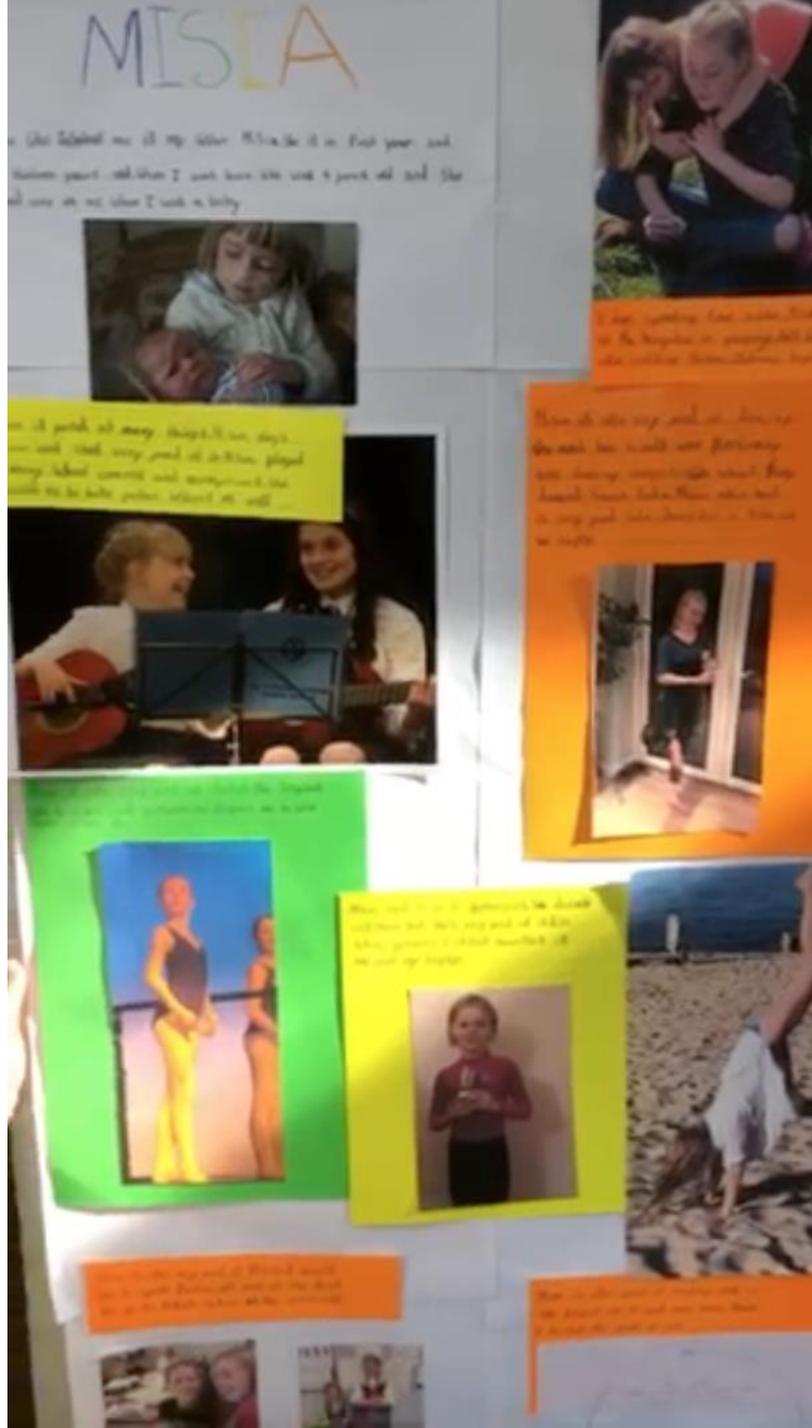

- Picasso's first word was "Mamá" the Spanish word for mom!

- The most expensive painting ever sold was Picasso's 'Women of Algiers' (Version O) which was sold in 2015 for 179.3 million dollars!
